ABSTRACT

The current world is facing a great pandemic where people are afraid to step out to shop for their necessities which have brought down the economy and life of many business organizations and their employees. To overcome such situations the On Road Vehicle Breakdown Assistance would act as a mechanic shop that allows the user to make an appointment online at their convenience using the application.

The on-road vehicle breakdown assistance displays all the mechanics available at the display and the application also includes a google map view for customer convenience. The mechanics are listed as separate tiles in the application that include initial price and mechanic information and they also include the add to view option along with the mechanic details within the tile. Users can choose the mechanic of their preference and make an appointment and wait for their arrival.

Once the appointment option inside the mechanic is clicked the appointments are then added to the view pending list. And mechanics can approve or reject the appointment. Users have access to update their application and users can view once their appointment is placed.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
